

Condolence observation for Suicide bomber killing 45 troops in Jammu and Kashmir 15-Feb-2019

Paramilitary soldiers stand by the wreckage of a bus after the suicide attack in Pampore on Thursday.
(AP)

Police sources said the suicide bomber-driven SUV came along the Central Reserve Police Force (CRPF) bus.

In the worst ever terror attack in Jammu and Kashmir since militancy erupted in 1989, a suicide bomber on Thursday rammed his SUV packed with explosives into a CRPF bus on the Srinagar-Jammu highway in Pulwama district, killing at least 45 troopers and leaving the security established stunned.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi led the nation in condemning the horror.

"The attack ... is despicable. I strongly condemn this dastardly attack. The sacrifices of our brave security personnel shall not go in vain. The entire nation stands shoulder to shoulder with the families of the brave martyrs," he tweeted.

