

Nalvadi Krishnaraja Wodeyar Rover Crew 16th September 2017

The inauguration of “Nalvadi Krishnaraja Wodeyar Rover Crew” a unit of Bharath Scouts & Guides, Mysuru for the year 2017-18 was held on 16th September 2017 at Vidyavardhaka First Grade College, Mysuru.

The inaugurator Sri.V.M.Ramachandra, Secretary, Bharath Scouts & Guides, Chamarajanagar inaugurated the function and spoke about the importance of Scouts and Guides in ones' life and explained that the scouts and guides stand above all differences like Caste, Creeds, Religion and

Country and they are ready to face all challenges. He gave an example of Neil Armstrong, who along with his national flag hoisted the Scouts and Guides flag on the moon. Sri.V.M.Ramachandra also explained that there is no age limit to join Scouts and Guides.

The Guest of Honour Sri.Abdul Jameel, Member, Governing Council, Vidyavardhaka Sangha and Secretary, Bharath Scouts & Guides, Mysuru said that, Scouts and Guides is a voluntary service which is functioning in more than 217 countries.

The Guest of Honour Dr.Gurumurthy also spoke and emphasized that, it is important adopt oneself to the values and ethics of the scouts and guides to be a responsible citizen of India.

The presidential speech was given by Sri.P.Vishwanath, Hon. Secretary, Vidyavardhaka Sangha(R), Mysuru, International Commissioner Bharath Scouts & Guides, India and Chief Commissioner, Bharath Scouts & Guides, Mysuru told that value of education can be given through Scouts and Guides, it also helps to bring out the leadership quality in them.

The Speaker also told that, during the regime of Nalvadi Krishnaraja Wodeyar the Scouts and Guides received a lot of patron. In India Scouts and Guides were started in 1907.

The Principal, Dr. S. MariGowda was present along with Prof. H. J. Chandrashekar, Advisor, Crew Activities and Sri. Aravind R, Rover Scout Leader were present in the program. Vote of Thanks was given by Sri. Nandan.

