

Inauguration of Co-curricular activities for the year 2017-18 29th -July-2017

The Inauguration of Co-curricular activities for the year 2017-18 of Vidhyavardhaka First Grade College was held on 29-07-2017.

The Inaugurator Sri.Prathap Simha, Member of the Parliament, Mysuru-Kodagu Lok Sabha Constituency gave his inaugural speech and said that education should never become a preparation for the job market rather it should be a process of gaining knowledge, he also gave a call to the students to have innovative mindset and to channelize/Ignite the energy within them.

He also spoke about the life and achievements of Steve Jobs and opined that the duration or life span is not important but the achievements in life matters. Sri Prathap Simha also took an instance Tony Morrison's Nobel Acceptance speech to remind that future depends on one's own effort.

The Chief Guest Rajshekar Koti Chief Editor, Andolona News Paper Mysuru spoke and expressed his concern and was shocked about the way elections are contested and urged the youth to cast their vote genuinely also emphasized on the concept of equal opportunity to all. The Chief Guest also expressed his desire to see India as a developed nation.

The Guest of Honor Sri.S.N.Lakshminarayana, Hon.Treasurer V.V.Sangha® addressed the students and opined that one should have a habit of reading and usage of mobile phones should be limited and to concentrate more on gaining knowledge.

The Presidential addressed was delivered by Sri.P.Vishwanath, Hon.Secretary, V.V.Sangha® and told that confidence in self could help to achieve great goals in life.

The keynote address was given by Dr.S.Marigowda, Principal, VVFGC who very elaborately explained the activities of the academic year. Staff Advisor Sri.Aravind.R, Assistant Professor, VVFGC, Mysuru was present along with the Principal on the dias.

Invocation was done by Miss.Sharanya, Vote of Thanks by Mr.Anand and Compered by Harshitha and Miss Manasa.