Prof. T.K. Umesh, Hon. Vice Chancellor, University of Mysore, Mysuru In his inaugural address, he said that education is both the cause of learning something and to induce teachers and students. Commerce is booming and there are lot of opportunities for the Commerce graduates in industry and corporate world.

‘Sri Venkatesh S.V, Founder, RIIIT & Hon. Advisor, Skill on Wheels, NSDC, Govt. of India was the Chief Guest, who opined that if you have skill set company will search for you and you don ‘t have skill set you have to search for companies. He further stated that we need to understand the perspective, and unlearn to learn. People look for “expertise” than “experiance” We blend students, teachers, technicians etc., but fail to blend ourselves. Instead of saying “I love you” better concentrating on earning profit so that love follows it automatically.

Er.P.Vishwanath, Hon.Secretary of VVS who was a Guest of Honor felt that student who chose the college should also love the subject. They should involve in group discussions, interaction with teachers, plan their future and try to execute their plan. In order to become employable one should acquire, skills and expertise and become industry ready.

Sri S.N.Lakshminarayana, Hon. Treasurer, VVS who spoke on the occasion, said to follow 3Ds ie., Duty, Determination and Devotion and if these are followed, success will come automatically. He gave the example of Winston Churchill and Dr. Johnson who became world famous though they are not much educated but only succeeded with hard work.

Sri T.Nagaraju, Chairman, CMC of the college informed the students to concentrate on education and to acquire Master degree and thereby bring laurels to the college, teachers and to their parents and wished the new students all the very best.

Dr.S.MariGowda, Principal of the college gave more details about the Induction Programme. He also said that the college management is offering good facilities for happy learning and value added facilities like spoken English classes, Tally and Advance excel training and special coaching for competitive examinations like NET, UPSC. In addition Personality development programme at India's leading Commerce college, like Sri Ram College Of Commerce, New Delhi and IIM-K are provide. In addition to that Scholarship to the meritorious and economically backward students are facilitated. He further requested the students to make use of the facilities and gain more and more knowledge.

Vote of thanks was rendered by Prof. Prashanth Kumar G, Ms. Vasudha H M rendered invocation and Dr.Rajeshwari, G.M , Asst. Professor compered the programme.
