“ Ethics is the soul of Commerce” - Shankar Devanoor

Induction Programme for newly admitted M.Com students for the Academic Year 2025-26 was held today at P.G. Centre, Vidyavardhaka First Grade College, Mysuru.

Sri Shankar Devanoor, Spiritual Thinker and Chief Engineer (Retd) Mysuru, was the Chief guest. In his address he said “the modern world is based and moving on the commerce domain. He wished let commerce bloom on the bed rock of ethics. So, the young aspirants of commerce can nurture the nation towards progress. He advised the students to aim for higher dreams. Life is a journey of fulfilling the dreams which we have dreamt. Live for your dreams don’t strive only to live and prove yourself early. Time is very short but, life is very precious. Focus on your dreams, acquire knowledge and skills with ethics. “The pain of the root is the gain of the flower”. He opined that nothing is impossible to a possible mind so, the student fraternity should not only plan in life but it should be executed beautifully. Values are more important than valuables with these world he concluded..

Dr.S.MariGowda, Principal of the college, in his address he well defined the in and around of P.G.Centre and he assured that the students are promised with quality education. He remembered the academic achievers of the previous year and advised the freshers to set forth the goals in their life and to acquire skills and knowledge so that, it leads to their all-round development.

Sri Shreeshaila Ramannavar, Hon’ble Treasurer, Vidyavardhaka Sangha who was a guest of honour. in his speech, he welcomed the decision of the students in choosing this college for their future endeavors. He advised the students to utilize the best time in the college and to broaden their knowledge and to learn in advanced methodologies of teaching and learning process. He felt that we are living in the world of transformation where an ordinary student can become an entrepreneur, business merchant, nation builder and professional in future.

On the occasion, Newsletter of the P.G. Centre “VVPGC IMAGE” Issue 13 was released.

Sri Gundappa Gowda, Hon. President of Vidyavardhaka Sangha, in his Presidential address spoke about inception of the college. He opined that in future Commerce graduates will be ruling the world.
