Message

My Dear Students,

Our esteemed institution, Vidyavardhaka First Grade College welcomes you with a profound manifestation to impart quality education in the arena of higher learning. The institution was established in 1978 with a BBM (now BBA) course and now offers six programs including B. Com, BBA, BA, BCA, MCom, and PhD & Proposed to start MCA Course from the academic year 2025-26.

The contribution of youth talent is integral to the development of the nation. Today's corporate world demands a globally competitive talent which is mostly inherited from the quality of education.

The management of our institution has created an excellent academic platform and seminal character by quickly responding to the evolutionary changes in the field of education. The spirit of comity and goodwill between the students and the faculty encourages solidarity through the journey of education in our institution. The extracurricular activities and programs conducted to enhance skill development also foster the enhancement process and the teaching pedagogy.

We believe that a holistic and skill-based education is the need of the hour and we are relentlessly working towards upholding this vision. I assure the students will experience the best academic rendezvous in our institution.

Dr. S MariGowda, Principal
